READ CAREFULLY AND THOROUGHLY

Purpose

Securing a loan from the Specht Educational Trust is a privilege and not a right. The purpose of this fund is to provide financial assistance, in the form of a low interest loan and/or scholarship, to graduating seniors who are motivated to succeed in their educational endeavors. The Trustees of the Specht Educational Trust will award scholarships of $1,500 each and low interest student loans of $1,500 each to selected graduating seniors residing in Cherokee County, lowa in pursuit of higher education.

Rules and Regulations

The Cherokee State Bank and Loughlin Law Firm serve as Co-Trustees of the Specht Educational Trust. The Trustees shall constitute the body who shall have the sole power and authority to formulate and promulgate such rules regulations and restrictions consistent with the objectives and purposes of this trust, under which financial assistance shall be given to applicants, and to pass upon the fitness and need of all applicants for assistance under the terms of this trust.

Any beneficiary who receives a loan from this trust shall be subject to such rules and regulations as may be imposed by the Trustees. The Trustees appointed for this trust reserves the right, and the student concedes to the Trustees the right, to withdraw such aid without liability on the part of the Trustees, when in its judgement the student beneficiary is not making the best use of the opportunities afforded by reason of the aid received.

The Trustees shall keep track of the progress of each beneficiary receiving a loan and when in its judgement such beneficiary is not making the best use of the opportunities afforded by reason of aid received, then it may withdraw such aid or it may continue the same upon such additional terms as may to it seem best.

Of the students selected, the Trustees expects that they will cooperate heartily with the Trustees and the institution of learning which they attend.

Each beneficiary, upon receiving a loan, shall give a written promissory note for same which shall not bear interest unless it is not paid at the time it is due. The loan shall not draw interest for a period of 6 years from the date of funding. At the end of the 6 year period, the loan is considered due. From and after the date the loan is due, the loan shall bear simple interest at the rate of 5% per annum on the outstanding balance from and after that date. On the date interest accrues, the outstanding balance shall be amortized to determine the months payments of an equal amount to be made over a maximum of ten years.

Pledae

The undersigned hereby makes application to the Trustee of the Specht Educational Trust of Cherokee, Iowa, and hereby pledges that: All of the answers in this application are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. The Ioan proceeds granted to me will not be used for any other purpose than the expenses of my education.

I have read and understand the rules established by the Trustees of the Specht Educational Trust and agree to conform to the terms of repayment set forth therein.

If the loan is awarded to me I further promise:

- To answer promptly (within 6 days) all correspondence relation thereto.
- To keep the school and Trustee of the Specht Educational Trust informed of my contact information (mailing address, email address and phone number) as long as any part of the loan received by me has not been repaid to the Trustee.
- To repay the amount of the loan to the Trustee according to the terms of my agreement.

I recognize that this promise, to answer promptly all correspondence relating to the loan and to keep the school and the Trustee advised of my contact information, is fundamentally important, and that receiving the loan is contingent thereon.

SECTION 5: DEFINITIONS

Cost of attendance is an estimate of tuition and fees, room and board, transportation, and other costs for the period of enrollment covered by the loan, as determined by the school. A student's cost of attendance may be obtained from the school's financial aid office.

Estimated financial assistance is all federal, state, institutional (school), private, and other sources of assistance used in determining eligibility for most Title IV student financial aid, including amounts of financial assistance used to replace the expected family contribution. The student's estimated financial assistance is determined by the school and may be obtained from the school's financial aid office.

Alender is a private education lender as defined in Section 140 of the Truth in Lending Act and any other person engaged in the business of securing, making, or extending private education loans on behalf of the lender.

A period of enrollment is the academic year, academic term (such as semester, trimester, or quarter), or the number of weeks of instructional time for which the applicant is requesting the loan.

A private education loan is a loan provided by a private education lender that is not a Title IV loan and that is issued expressly for postsecondary education expenses, regardless of whether the loan is provided through the school that the student attends or directly to the borrower from the private education lender. A private education loan does not include (1) An extension of credit under an open-end consumer credit plan, a reverse mortgage transaction, a residential mortgage transaction, or any other loan that is secured by real property or a dwelling; or (2) An extension of credit in which the school is the lender if the term of the extension of credit is 90 days or less or an interest rate will not be applied to the credit balance and the term of the extension of credit is one year or less, even if the credit is payable in more than four installments.

Title IV student financial aid includes the Federal Pell Grant Program, the Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) Program, the Federal Work-Study (FWS) Program, the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan (Direct Loan) Program, the Federal Perkins Loan Program, and the Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grant Program. To apply for Title IV federal grants, loans, and work-study, submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA,)which is available at www.fafsa.gov, by calling 1-800-4-FED-AID, or from the school's financial aid office.
